

IIAM MEDIATOR ACCREDITATION SYSTEM & QUALIFYING ASSESSMENT PROGRAMS

IIAM ACCREDITATION FOR MEDIATORS

As per the IIAM Mediator Accreditation System, Mediators are graded as Grade-C to Grade-A. IIAM Accreditation is given as per the grades and upgradation based on the IIAM Qualifying Assessment Programs (QAP).

As per the IIAM QAP, a Grade-C mediator, after completing 15 hours of mediation is eligible to be accredited as a “Certified Community Mediator”. Similarly, a Grade-B mediator after completing 25 hours of mediation is eligible to be accredited as a “Certified Commercial Mediator”, after 75 hours as a “Certified Senior Commercial Mediator” and after 200 hours as an “IMI Certified Mediator” (Grade A).

Grade-C (Community Mediator):

Candidate who has undergone the basic level mediation training/orientation program consisting of atleast 15 hours of mediation training by IIAM or the IIAM CDM Program (Certificate in Dispute Management – Distance-Ed program), which is a 6 month program equated as 15 hours or equivalent training accepted by IIAM, on successful completion of the program will be graded as IIAM Grade-C Mediator. Grade-C Mediator will be eligible to mediate in a Community mediation matter, which are generally family, neighbourhood, elder, peer, compoundable criminal matters and commercial and contractual matters below the value of Rs. 5 lakhs. Grade-C mediator will be appointed only as a co-mediator for the first 10 hours of his practice.

Grade-C (Certified Community Mediator):

As per the IIAM QAP-1, a Grade-C mediator, after completing 15 hours of mediation is eligible to be accredited as a CERTIFIED COMMUNITY MEDIATOR and as per IIAM norms he/she will be entitled to act as a Community Mediator, for matters eligible under Grade-C. Certified Community Mediator can act as a sole mediator.

Grade-B (Commercial Mediator):

Candidate who has undergone the IIAM Mediator Training Program, which consists of a minimum of 40 hours, or who has successfully completed mediation training from other recognized institutions or organizations accepted by IIAM, equivalent to a minimum of 40 hours, will be graded as IIAM Grade-B Mediator. Grade-B Mediator will be eligible to mediate in all community, family, commercial and contractual matters. Grade-B mediator will normally be appointed as a co-mediator for the first 10 hours of his practice.

Grade-B (Certified Commercial Mediator & Certified Senior Commercial Mediator):

As per the IIAM QAP-2, a Grade-B mediator, after completing 25 hours of mediation is eligible to be accredited as a CERTIFIED COMMERCIAL MEDIATOR and as per IIAM QAP-3, after completing 75 hours of mediation, he/she is eligible to be accredited as a CERTIFIED SENIOR COMMERCIAL MEDIATOR. Certified Commercial Mediator and Certified Senior Commercial Mediator will be eligible to mediate in all types of disputes both domestic and cross-border.

Grade-A (IMI Certified Mediator):

IIAM Grade-B Mediator, who completes 200 hours of mediation, spread over at least 20 mediations and successfully complete IIAM QAP-4, will be entitled for IMI (International Mediation Institute) Certification. IMI Certification will be made based on the guidelines issued by IMI. IMI Certified Mediator is graded as IIAM Grade-A Mediator. Grade-A Mediator will be eligible to mediate in all types of disputes both domestic and cross-border.

GENERAL NORMS

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

The IIAM Accreditation and Qualifying Assessment Programs will be accessible on equal basis to all mediators regardless of their professional affiliations, gender, race, ethnicity, age, religion, sexual orientation or other personal characterization. The Mediator accreditation will be purely based on evaluation under the respective QAP's. Training or Orientation programs on mediation received by candidates, on equal rating with IIAM programs as accepted by IIAM, will entitle the mediator to apply under IIAM QAP's.

RECORDS FOR ACCREDITATION

1. The credit for hours of mediation done by the applicant will be recorded in accordance with the Mediation Record Form maintained by IIAM or any other authentic record revealing the hours of mediation done by the applicant.
2. Evaluation forms are separate from the Feedback forms. Same individual shall not provide both Evaluation and Feedback forms. Persons giving Evaluation forms must have direct experience with the mediation process. Applicant shall provide the contact information of these individuals to enable IIAM to send them the Evaluation Form and Guidelines.
3. The applicant shall be entitled to avail the benefit of attendance in recognized CPD programs, like mediation/conciliation workshops, seminars, conferences, training programs, courses. The hours of CPD can be taken in lieu of hours of mediation, provided only a maximum of 5 CPD hours will be accepted for QAP-1, 7.5 CPD hours for QAP-2, 15 CPD hours for QAP-3 and 40 CPD hours for QAP-4. The self-attested certificates of such programs and self-attested copies of articles written by the applicant shall be produced for availing this.

PROCEDURE FOR CONSISTENT QAP EVALUATION

For evaluating the mediators under QAP, the Assessors will be given guidelines for evaluating mediation knowledge and mediation skills. This is to ensure that the QAP Assessors evaluate the applicants on a consistent application of high quality standards. The adherence to the guidelines also conform that the standard of evaluation and outcome is the same for all Assessors, in identical situations, thereby ensuring the consistency of appraisal ratings. Assessors will assess applicants based on the written documentation and role play as per the Guidelines given to them. IIAM will monitor that the Assessors evaluate the applicants based on the guidelines. IIAM shall also monitor the performance and practice of the Assessors based on their (i) responsiveness, (ii) timeliness, (iii) meticulousness, and (iv) impartiality. Assessors will be invited to assist IIAM to improve the QAP and to develop the high standards.

The Assessors who are empanelled as Neutrals with IIAM, are independent of the Institution and have no administrative or policy connection with the Institution. Those Assessors who are members of the Institution or members of the Governing Council of the Institution will be put in as Assessors only along with another Assessor who is independent of the Institution.
